It's an easy job for the barber to part the hair on a head like this. It's just as easy to prevent baldness if you only do the right thing. Baldness is almost always a sure sign of neglect; it is the story of neglected dandruff. Dandruff is untidy, unnecessary, and unhealthy.

ALICE'S RICH ORIENTAL GIFTS

Secretary Shaw Did a Good Deal of Worrying About Them Until He Went to Papa.

WASHINGTON, October 16.—Secretary Shaw and the Collector of the Port at San Francisco have had a load of trouble for several weeks about which the public has known nothing, and it was lifted today. It was on account of the presents which Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the President, has received during her trip to the Philippines, China, Japan and Korea. As the President's daughter, she has been given many pretty and some valuable presents. One newspaper reported several weeks ago that the actual value would be something like $100,000. She has received silks in China and Japan, pearls in the island of Solu, and wherever else she has gone gifts have been showered upon her.

The custom officials have been wondering what they ought to do when Miss Roosevelt arrives in an American port with the riches of the mines and looms of the Orient. Some of them suggested that, as she is the daughter of the President, she ought to be allowed to bring the valuables in duty free, inasmuch as she was treated with all the honors of a Princess and did so much to cement friendship between the United States and foreign countries. The belongings of the crowned heads of members of royalty and of diplomats are thus admitted duty free into the United States.

Secretary Shaw received suggestions until he was almost sick. All that stood out before his official gaze was that the presents had to be reported as worth possibly $100,000, and if the usual rate of duty were imposed it would cost Miss Roosevelt or her father upwards of 60 per cent, or $60,000. Neither Miss Roosevelt nor her father is rich, although the young lady is understood to have a modest fortune in her own right.

Finally Secretary Shaw took his troubles to the President and told him about it.

"There is only one thing to do," replied the President; "that is to treat my daughter's baggage as you would the baggage of any other private person. She will pay duty on everything that is dutiable."

Secretary Shaw feels better about it. Members of the Taft party to the Philippines say that the value of Miss Roosevelt's presents has been exaggerated, but, whatever the value, it will be determined by the local appraisers at San Francisco.

CAPT. RINDER LOSES HIS PAPERS

Master of the Minnesota Was British Officer and United States Citizen at the Same Time.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—Captain John H. Rinder of the Minnesota will have to vacate his citizen's papers, according to a report on his case now on the way to Washington from Secret Service Agent John H. Helms.

The investigation prosecuted by Agent Helms developed the fact that after Captain Rinder had taken out his first intention papers, in 1887, he went back to his native land—England—and entered service as a Sub-Lieutenant in the Royal Naval Reserves. This was done in 1891 and vitiated his citizenship candidacy begun in 1887. The report of the secret service bureau also alleges that Captain Rinder did not sever his connection with the English Reserves until the very day he became a full-fledged citizen of the United States. He appeared in the Superior Court, in this city, on October 24, 1903, and was naturalized; then he wrote out his resignation as a British officer and sent it by mail to the Registrar of Shipping, at London. It was not until November 19th of the same year that he received notification from that source, that his resignation had been accepted. According to this, Captain Rinder was for one month both a British Lieutenant and an American citizen.

He was born in Lincolnshire, England, in 1859, and was in service on English vessels from the time he was old enough to ship until 1903. While serving on the White Star Line from New York to England he received his appointment as Sub-Lieutenant in the Royal Naval Reserves. He was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in 1896, or nine years after he had taken his first steps to citizenship in the United States.

Besides Captain Rinder there were twenty-one other cases of fraudulent citizenship disposed of yesterday by Secret Service Agent Helms. Twenty-one bogus papers were taken to the Superior Court and declared void.

BEWARE!

Familiarity with danger breeds contempt of it, as many facts testify. It is not surprising, therefore, that the people of New Orleans—or a certain proportion of them—have grown careless in their precautions against yellow fever. This is shown in the increased number of new cases. Any relaxation of vigilance against such an enemy speedily brings its own punishment. New Orleans still has two months of peril to endure. Anything like indifference or lack of precaution before the middle of November will result disastrously.—Chicago Chronicle.
